

--That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

--Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home by less interruptions during family and private time.

--Effect of Indiana's law has been to halt approximately 14-15 calls per week, now we only receive one.

--My personal views about the importance of Indiana's law is that it provides uninterrupted family time.